"Unity among two or more people gets its virtue entirely from something else. Unity itself is neutral until it is given goodness or badness by something else. So if Herod and Pilate are unified by their common scorn for Jesus, this is not a good unity. But if Paul and Silas sing together in prison for Christ's sake, this is a good unity. Therefore, it is never enough to call Christians to have unity. That may be good or bad. The unified vote fifty years ago in my home church in South Carolina to forbid blacks from attending services was not a good unity. The unified vote of a mainline Protestant denomination to bless forbidden sexual acts is not a good unity. Christian unity in the New Testament gets its goodness from a combination of its source [the Holy Spirit], its views [unity in the truth], its affections [affection for those who are our family in Christ], and its aims. Spirit-rooted, Christ-manifesting, truth-cherishing, humbly-loving unity is designed by God to have at least two aims: a witness to the world, and an acclamation of the glory of God." John Piper, desiringGod.org

Part 2

February 17, 2019

God desires for Christians to _____.

Unity is vital to the _____ and _____ of a church. John 13:35

Church members have a _____ to _____ the unity of the church.

I. We are never to be a _____ in the church. Ephesians 4:1-3

II. _____ destroys the unity of the church. James 3:6

III. _____ preserves the unity of the church. Colossians 3:12-13

Our pledge: Because I am a member of the body of Christ, I will seek to be a source of unity in my church.

Signed: _____
