"A stingy man is eager to get rich and is unaware that poverty awaits him. Proverbs 28:22: The rush towards a set goal may lead to compromising standards of honesty, falling for 'get rich schemes', or becoming a slave to a lender. Being hasty is a problem in many areas of life. A quick observation of a situation without having all the facts may lead you to draw the wrong conclusion. If we are in a rush to increase our salary or experience worldly success, we can easily make choices that will lead to greater, and more significant, poverty in other areas. Many marriages, homes, hearts, and churches have been emotionally and spiritually bankrupted by an unchecked hunger for more profit, more money, more material success. The Bible does not condemn money but rather the love of it. ... to set riches as a goal leads to trouble. ... wait on the Lord. This is not a wait of idleness but a wait of expectation as one is busy doing what the Lord requires at the present. ... do not rush toward financial gain; wait on the Lord's good purpose, timing, and way. His way always leads to true and lasting wealth." Baptist Bible Hour
